

ESCOT MANAGEMENT CONSULTING ELECTS NEW BOARD MEMBERS

ALBANY, NY – MARCH 31, 2009 —The Executive Service Corps of the Tri-Cities (ESCOT), a nonprofit management consulting organization dedicated to aiding nonprofits, educational institutions and government offices, has elected a new vice president and added three members to the board of directors.

Board member Richard Desrochers of Ballston Lake, retired Executive Director of Vanderheyden Hall, was elected Vice President. Named to the board were Marie F. Erkes of Menands, retired president of Software Quality Consulting; Robert L. Fisher of Delmar, retired program researcher for the New York State Department of Corrections and author on issues in the sociology of science; and Anthony M. Gaddy of Albany, assistant director of the Hamilton Hill Arts Center and director of public relations and marketing for the Center.

Re-elected were: President, Robert Wolfgang of Albany, co-owner of Albany Aqua Ducks and CEO of Tech Valley Security; Secretary, Daniel Egan of Albany, retired Comptroller, Peter Young Housing, Industries and Treatment; Treasurer, Mabel Murphy of Slingerlands, retired Director of Personnel, New York State Department of Taxation and Finance; and members of the board, Lynette Seawall of Woodstock, president of PerformancePlus Consulting; and George A. Smith of Delmar, retired staffing services program manager for the New York State Department of Civil Service.

Serving the greater Capital Region since 1987, the Executive Service Corps of Tri-Cities provides affordable management consulting and business advice in such areas as board and organizational development, strategic planning, human resources, financial practices and budgeting, executive coaching, employee training, information technology, and marketing. ESCOT consultants bring experience from the nonprofit, academic, public and private sectors. ESCOT is part of the national Executive Service Corps Affiliate Network, consisting of executive service corps based and independently operated in more than 30 cities across the United States. To volunteer or discuss a possible consulting project, contact ESCOT at (518) 522-7774. For more information, visit the Web site at www.escot-inc.org.

###