

ESCOT MANAGEMENT CONSULTING ELECTS 2 NEW BOARD MEMBERS

ALBANY, NY —Wilma DeLucco of Delmar, retired Director of Administrative Services for the New York State Thruway Authority, and William Hammarstrom of Latham, Principal Real Estate Investment Analyst for the New York State Teachers' Retirement System, have been elected to the Board of Directors of the Executive Service Corps of the Tri-Cities. ESCOT is a nonprofit organization of volunteer consultants who use their professional experience to provide management consulting services to nonprofits, educational institutions and government offices.

Re-elected were: President, Robert Wolfgang of Albany, co-owner of Albany Aqua Ducks and CEO of Tech Valley Security; Vice President, Richard Desrochers of Ballston Lake, retired Executive Director of Vanderheyden Hall; Secretary, Daniel Egan of Albany, retired Comptroller, Peter Young Housing, Industries and Treatment; Treasurer, Mabel Murphy of Slingerlands, retired Director of Personnel, New York State Department of Taxation and Finance; and members of the board, Genevieve Foulks of Watervliet, President, Jay Dee Systems Inc.; Jane Gorzelnik of Loudonville, retired Director of Business Services, Hudson Valley Community College; Lance Jackson of Glenville, retired Executive Director, Northeast Parent and Child Society; Desrochers; and Egan.

Serving the greater Capital Region since 1987, the Executive Service Corps of Tri-Cities provides affordable management consulting and business advice in such areas as board and organizational development, strategic planning, human resources, financial practices and budgeting, executive coaching, employee training, information technology, and marketing. ESCOT's volunteer consultants bring experience from the nonprofit, academic, public and private sectors. ESCOT is part of the national Executive Service Corps Affiliate Network, consisting of executive service corps based and independently operated in more than 30 cities across the United States. To volunteer or discuss a possible consulting project, contact ESCOT at (518) 522-7774. For more information, visit the Web site at www.escot-inc.org.

###