

ESCOT MANAGEMENT CONSULTING ELECTS NEW ADVISORY COMMITTEE MEMBERS

ALBANY, NY —The Executive Service Corps of the Tri-Cities (ESCOT), a nonprofit management consulting organization dedicated to aiding nonprofits, educational institutions and government offices, has elected three new members to its Advisory Committee of community leaders.

The ESCOT Board of Directors has elected to the committee: John Deffigos, retired Deputy Executive Director and Chief Financial Officer, New York State Science and Technology Foundation; Raymond Schimmer, Chief Executive Officer, Parsons Child and Family Center, Albany; and Bill Wolff, Executive Director, LaSalle School, Albany.

Members of the Advisory Committee also include John Feeney, retired Chancellor, Albany Catholic Diocese; Karen Johnson, Capital Campaign Director, Proctors Theatre, Schenectady; Margaret King, Associate Dean for Student Development, Schenectady County Community College; Kathy Pelham, Chief Executive Officer, United Way of the Greater Capital Region; and Barbara Zaron, President, New York State Organization of Management Confidential Employees.

Serving the greater Capital Region since 1987, the Executive Service Corps of Tri-Cities provides affordable management consulting and business advice in such areas as board and organizational development, strategic planning, human resources, financial practices and budgeting, executive coaching, employee training, information technology, and marketing. ESCOT consultants bring experience from the nonprofit, academic, public and private sectors. ESCOT is part of the national Executive Service Corps Affiliate Network, consisting of executive service corps based and independently operated in more than 30 cities across the United States. To volunteer or discuss a possible consulting project, contact ESCOT at (518) 522-7774. For more information, visit the Web site at www.escot-inc.org.
